

Year 1 - What was Life Like 50 years ago in Handsworth and for our Grandparents?

Key facts

Some key differences between childhood in the 1950s/1960s and today:

- Our grandparents were children in the 1950s and 1960s.
- Not everyone had a television. The screen was just black and white. Children often listened to the radio.
- Kitchens looked very different.
- Children played with Sindy dolls, lego, action men and Scalextric.
- Children usually played outside on their own or with their friends.
- At school children learned the 'three Rs' of 'Reading, wRiting and aRithmetic'.
