

What difference has learning about Children's Rights at school made to you?

Year 6:

- It has made me realise that not all children around the world have these rights like I do.
- I have learnt that you should not be ungrateful as some people have a lot less than you.
- It made me realise that people care about us around school a lot more so we should be grateful for these rights and to be aware of certain people who won't look after us.
- I know about my rights now, which is important so if someone took away my rights I would know this and know what to do about it.
- Some countries are breaking the rules about the rights that children should have.
- It made me realise how hard life is for refugees.
- Rights Respecting Week made me realise how important it is to donate blood/organs.
- It made me want to sign up to the organ donation register.
- It made me realise how lucky I am to live in a country where my rights are respected.

Year 5:

- I have my rights and that makes me a free person.
- I know my rights so that I can see if I am being treated properly.
- Life without rights is no life.
- If I'm abused then I know my rights and I can complain.
- I can be a better learner with my rights.

Year 4:

- It gives me courage to show my rights.
- I feel grateful for having rights because some countries children aren't given these rights.
- It has encouraged me to do more things for those who don't have the same rights as we do.
- I expect more adults to listen to what we have to say because I know more about my rights.

Year 3:

- It has made me think more about children who don't have their rights respected.
- Now we know that some children don't stay with their families.
- Now I know what I should and shouldn't do and what others should and shouldn't do so they respect my rights.
- It has made me think about the world.
- It has made me what to help children that don't get their rights.

- I now understand that everyone has these rights and that's important.
- We know they are rights because they tell us to do the right things.
- Since we have started learning about Children's Rights it's made me more thoughtful because there are children out there who don't have these rights.
- Learning about children's rights has made us realise what's happening around the world.
- I know that I've got a right to speak and the adults need to listen.

Year 2:

- I now know more about my rights. At the start of the year I didn't know much about them and now I know lots about them.
- I know that every child has lots of rights and nobody can stop them from having rights.
- I now know that rights are important to children.
- Every child has rights no matter if they are poor or rich, if they have parents or not. They keep us safe and sound. No one can stop us from having these important rights. They are important to every child.

Year 1:

- I like my rights. It has made me kind. It made me learn my rights.
- When you're outside you have to play together - if someone wants to play with you, and another friend says no, you can say yes - you have to be fair.
- You have the right to choose your own friend. I've learnt to be friendly.
- You have the right to education. You have to be quiet and learn.
- I feel healthy, it has taught me to do hard work and challenge myself. I have the right to be educated.
